

EXPERIENCE THE STILL RURAL BEAUTY OF THE HUNTER VALLEY WAY OF LIFE

Pokolbin & Rothbury

On the roads that straddle the foothills of the Brokenback Ranges, you will discover the big names in Australian wine that are rich in history as they have called the Hunter Valley home for many generations. You will also experience magnificent views, gardens, golf courses, restaurants, cafes and picnic areas with unobstructed views. Take a breath of fresh air, taste a famous wine and indulge in the treasures that you will find along the way.

Mount View

With award-winning boutique cellar doors, wineries and unique accommodation this is one of the most idyllic and scenic parts of the Hunter Valley. Enjoy Mount View Road, from the south-eastern end of Pokolbin south to Millfield Village. The road winds its way around the breathtakingly beautiful Brokenback Range and reveals vistas you'll just have to capture. www.mountview.biz

Wollombi

The picturesque Wollombi Valley and its historic village are home to many old convict structures and ancient Aboriginal sites. Wollombi Village is famed for its heritage colonial architecture and is the gateway to the convict trail, National Parks, boutique wineries and museums. www.visitwollombi.com.au

Lovedale

Home of the Lovedale Long Lunch held every year in May, this trail offers a unique community of boutique wineries, galleries and restaurants. On this trail you will also find the home of chocolate, horse riding through the ranges, olive experiences, cooking classes & a hit of golf. Take a leisurely drive north and you will reach the New England Highway and a winery which is draped in Australian wine history.

Broke Fordwich

Nestled in the foot hills of the Brokenback Range, Broke Fordwich is known as the 'tranquil side of the Hunter Valley'. On this trail you will experience never-ending views of vast plains, and the best view possible of the iconic Yellow Rock. You will have the choice of many boutique and organic vineyards, indulgent restaurants, including award winning wines & restaurants and quality olive groves. You will also find beautiful country accommodation, where you can enjoy the stillness of the night and star filled skies.

Hermitage Road

At the northern end of Pokolbin, this friendly rural destination offers a wide range of accommodation styles, restaurants, cafes and galleries. It is also where some of the regions most acclaimed vigneron and winemakers both work and live. Come and explore. www.aroundhermitage.com.au

Cessnock

Cessnock is Wine Country's hub for business and shopping. Here you will find everything you need from groceries, gifts, fashion and hardware as well as the essential services including post offices and banks. There are also several accommodation options, restaurants, cafés and pubs.

For more information, please contact marketing@winecountry.com.au or call 02 4990 0900

